

Randall Faber

In recent seasons, Randall Faber toured Taiwan, Korea, the U.S., Canada, Australia and New Zealand and was a master teacher for the World Conference on Piano Pedagogy, National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy, and the National Piano Teachers Institute. He gave recent recitals in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth, St. Louis, Ann Arbor, Dallas, and Austin and performed as Visiting Artist at the Hoff-Barthelson School in New York, University of Michigan, University of Southern Mississippi, Saginaw State University, Southern Methodist University and universities throughout South Korea. In the previous season, Dr. Faber toured England and Scotland and presented his academic research at the 9th International Conference on Motivation in Lisbon, Portugal.

This year, Randall Faber performed as Convention Artist for the California Music Teachers, the South Carolina Music Teachers and the Wisconsin Music Teachers Associations. Upcoming appearances include the Portland International Music Festival, the Gilmore Festival, the Wasserman Festival, the Korean Piano Adventures Convention in Seoul, and a tour of Southeast Asia.

Randall Faber holds three degrees from the University of Michigan and a Ph.D. in Education and Human Development from Vanderbilt University. Randall and his wife Nancy are authors of the Piano Adventures® teaching method and nearly two hundred publications for the piano. They recently founded the Faber Piano Institute, which hosts their teacher support website PianoTeaching.com, and reside in Ann Arbor with their daughter Vivian.